

India Employment – Special Requirement Instructions

Update: 13 April, 2017

Purpose

This document provides a list of known 'special requirements' for various Employers across India.

Application Instructions

First Advantage recommends applicants review these instructions to determine whether present or former employer holds any 'special requirements' to enable a verification. Note, these requirements are subject to change. First Advantage will regularly update this advice as we receive updates from individual employers.

If your employer is not listed, please supply only the standard requirements – either a service certificate, experience certificate or relieving letter. Ensure your employee ID number is visible on this document.

If your employer is listed, please provide a clear and legible copy of any documentation required.
